

TOWN OF BOONTON

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Natalie Pisarcik, a lifelong Boontonite is a role model for Boonton's residents. She volunteers in a number of different capacities and is always willing to listen to a resident's ideas, suggestions, or complaints. She truly cares about the future of Boonton; and

WHEREAS, Natalie has been an integral part of the Recreation Committee for more than six years. Always ready when needed for any programs or special events, Natalie is a true working committee member, generous with her time and her ideas; and

WHEREAS, Natalie took upon herself the efforts of the disbanded Friends of the Rockaway River. She plans, coordinates, oversees, and participates in the river clean-up sponsored by Boonton Parks and Recreation. Her dedication to the river has generated much awareness about the importance of its care and inspired many to work to restore and protect its vitality and beauty; and

WHEREAS, Natalie takes her civic duties so seriously she appears in the annual holiday parade as "Goofy" and is always willing to attend wine and cheese parties whenever she is needed. She brings charm, warmth, and enthusiasm to all she does.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Cyril Wekilsky, Mayor of the Town of Boonton on behalf of the Board of Aldermen and the People of Boonton do hereby proclaim Natalie Pisarcik Boonton's Citizen of the Year. We thank her for her many efforts to make ours a happy and healthy community and we wish her much success in the future.

---

Cyril Wekilsky, Mayor

December 18, 2006

