

TOWN OF BOONTON

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Boonton's Cheryl Chludzinski exemplifies the spirit of volunteerism. Cheryl does not seek acknowledgement, and truly believes that giving of her time and talent is nothing special. She enjoys being involved, and loves being a part of the community. For Cheryl, volunteering helps her share her love of Boonton with others; and

WHEREAS, Cheryl volunteers extensively for the Parks and Recreation Department. She organizes and runs the Annual Chili Cook-off, the Summer Camp crafts program and the after-school "Snack Attack" program. Cheryl has volunteered during the annual Easter celebration and Boonton Day. She is always sharing new and creative ideas to help make our programs and events special, and she even cleans the Recreation Center a few times a year; and

WHEREAS, Cheryl's pride in Boonton is evident each Fall, as she and her family, dressed in red and black, attend football games to cheer on their Boonton Bombers. To promote her hometown, Cheryl became coordinator for the PTA's Boonton Spirit Wear; she creates fliers and manages a website to make gear with the Boonton Pride logo available to all; and

WHEREAS, Cheryl, a supportive mom, encourages her daughter's participation in local activities and always becomes enthusiastically involved herself. Cheryl is always ready to promote the Harmony Drum Corps and build its membership. She helps showcase Harmony at Boonton Day and the Christmas tree lighting ceremony, runs fundraiser dinners, and provides refreshments for the group during travel. She also arranged a concert and a musical demonstration as part of Boonton's Annual Turn Off TV Week to show kids how fun it is to be involved in a great organization like Harmony.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Cyril Wekilsky, on behalf of the Board of Alderman and the People of Boonton, do hereby declare Cheryl Chludzinski as Boonton's Citizen of the Year for 2011. We extend to her our gratitude for her generous service to our community and our best wishes for the future.
