

Boonton Parks and Recreation Leaders In Training Contract of Agreement

As a leader-in-training you will have the opportunity to develop leadership skills, conflict resolution strategies, effective communication skills and much more. Part of a L.I.T.'s responsibilities include: lunch preparation, planning activities and assisting staff throughout the day. As an LIT you will be expected to fulfill your responsibilities to the best of your ability. Listed below are a few of your responsibilities:

- Assist in drop off and pick up of campers
- Help groups prepare for lunchtime
- Fully participate in events and activities
- Help plan and execute events
- Make sure all children are accounted for
- Assist younger children with sunscreen, shoelaces, etc.
- Have fun and be a positive role model for campers

It is also important to assist group leaders when they need help. As a leader-in-training you will be teaching children many of life's lessons, (respect, kindness, empathy, etc.); do this by setting an example. Use positive language and actions. Actions speak louder than words. Do not demonstrate in the negative.

Your day starts at 9:00 am and ends at 2:00 pm. You will be expected to wear your camp t-shirt and sneakers each day. You will meet with the L.I.T. coordinator each day to discuss your schedule and to plan activities. You will have a half hour lunch break each day, during which you may eat with your assigned group, or eat with other L.I.T's.

At the end of each week, you will meet with the LIT coordinator for review and reflection.

Please sign and return the form below, together with the registration form.

I have read the above rules and expectations and I agree to abide by them to the best of my ability. I understand the general rules and regulations of Boonton Parks and Recreation summer camp also apply. I understand that completion of the LIT program does not guarantee employment as a junior group leader in the future.
